

Category: Technology & Design

MEMSYS

LinQ: a digital connection for railway wagons.

An on-board sensor system that enables real-time insights in the technical condition of railway wagons.

The system solves a major challenge for fleet managers by automatically detecting damages like flat spots in an early stage, providing plenty of time to schedule maintenance and avoid unscheduled downtime.

